

AMUSEMENTS.

WALNUT STREET THEATRE.—Mrs. Bowers appeared for the first time in the most arduous character of the Shakespearean drama, that of "Lady Macbeth." She gives to it an entirely original conception, her reading of the part is most excellent, but the part itself is not suited to the style of her talent or calculated to display her special excellences.

ARCH STREET THEATRE.—Last evening Mr. Murdoch gave his fine rendition of "Alfred Eriola." The dignity, feeling, and refinement of this performance are unequalled. The tenderness and passion of the scenes with "Clara" will not be forgotten.

NEW CHESTNUT STREET THEATRE.—Last performance of "Never too Late to Mend both at the matinee and in the evening. The Chestnut street matinee has become an institution in our city. The profit est ladies and the prettiest bonnets are to be seen here. This is the last evening of the Ethiopian Minstrelsy.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The Revels give a matinee which will be attended by all the ladies and children in the city. The day performances here are as complete as in the evening.

MUSICAL FUND BALL.—A capital programme, including the great Landhauser March, distinguishes the Germania's ball to-day.

Important Inter-Sine Decision by the Supreme Court of New Jersey. The following is the abstract of a case decided in the Supreme Court of New Jersey at the term of February, 1866.

Barnes & Drake vs. Gibbs and others.—The plaintiffs sued the defendants in the Supreme Court of the State of New York for certain moneys which it was alleged they had collected. Judgment was entered in that suit in favor of the plaintiffs on the 24th January, 1865. After that suit was commenced in New York, and before judgment rendered therein, viz. on the 20th of October, 1864, the plaintiffs brought suit against the defendants for the same cause of action in the Circuit Court of the county of Essex. The defendants in this latter action pleaded the judgment in New York, and to this plea the plaintiffs demurred. Held by the court that the plea should be sustained. And also that the application made to the Circuit for leave to amend the writ and pleadings so as to change the action from assumpsit to debt, and to permit the judgment obtained in New York to become the foundation of the suit, should be denied.
